ORDER

This cause coming on for hearing upon the MOTION of DON QUICK, District Attorney for the Seventeenth Judicial District and County of Adams, to grant the People's Motion to Limit PreTrial Publicity, at Broomfield, Colorado, in the County of Adams, the same being the place and one of the regular days prescribed by general rules of this court at which Motions may be heard, and the Court being fully advised,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AS FOLLOWS:

- I. Extrajudicial statements by attorneys and law enforcement and investigative personnel:
  - (A) From the date of this order any lawyer, law enforcement officer, or investigative personnel participating in or associated with the investigation of this criminal matter shall not make or participate in making any extrajudicial statement that a reasonable person would expect to be disseminated by means of public communication and that does more than state without elaboration:

4/17

- (2) Information contained in a public record.
  - (3) That the investigation is in progress.
  - (4) The scheduling or result of any step in litigation.
  - (5) A request for assistance in obtaining evidence and information necessary thereto.
  - (6) A warning of danger concerning the behavior of a person involved, when there is reason to believe that there exists the likelihood of substantial harm to an individual or to the public interest.
  - (7) The identity, residence, occupation, and family status of the accused.
  - (8) If any suspect has not been apprehended, information necessary to aid in apprehension of that person.
  - (9) The fact, time, and place of arrest.
  - (10) The identity of investigating and arresting officers or agencies and the length of the investigation.
- (B) Any lawyer, law enforcement officer, or investigative personnel associated with the prosecution or defense of this criminal matter shall not, from the date of this Court Order until the completion of the trial or disposition without trial, make or participate in making an extrajudicial statement that a reasonable person would expect to be disseminated by means of public communication and that relates to:
- (1) The character, credibility, reputation or prior criminal record of a party, suspect in a criminal investigation, or witness or the identity of a witness, or the expected testimony of a party or witness.
  - (2) The possibility of a plea of guilty to the offense charged or to a lesser offense.
  - (3) The existence or contents of any confession, admission or statement given by the accused or his refusal or failure to make a statement.
  - (4) The performance or results of any examinations or tests or the refusal or failure of the accused to submit to examinations or tests.
  - (5) The identity or nature of physical evidence expected to be presented.
  - (6) Any opinion as to guilt or innocence of the accused, the evidence or the merits of the case
  - (7) Information that the person knows or reasonably should know is likely to be inadmissible in evidence in a trial and that would, if disclosed, create a substantial risk of prejudicing an impartial trial.
  - (8) The fact that an accused has been charged with a crime, unless there is included therein a statement explaining that the charge is merely an accusation and that the defendant is presumed innocent until and unless proven guilty.
- (C) Any lawyer associated with a law firm or any law enforcement officer or investigator associated with a law enforcement or investigative agency associated with the prosecution or defense of this criminal matter shall exercise reasonable care to prevent his employees and associates from making an extrajudicial statement that he or she would be prohibited from making under this order.

II. Disclosure by Court Personnel:

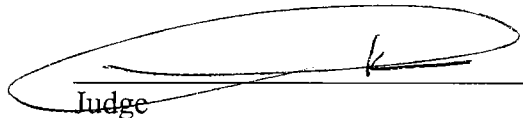

From the date of this order court personnel shall not disclose to any unauthorized person information relating to this pending criminal case that is not a matter of public records of the court and that may be prejudicial to the right of the People or the defendant to a fair trial.

III. Applicability:

This Order applies to those agencies served with a copy of this Order by mailing or personally delivering it to them at their official addresses and all subordinates in those agencies. If counsels wish this Order to apply to any agency not listed, the court shall be notified by written motion forthwith of said agency with proper notice to the opposing party.

Done in open Court this 17th day of June, A.D., 2010.
