Tucson

In addition to the benefits of attending the AJA meeting, there is a lot to see and do in Tucson. As noted on the Tucson Convention and Visitors Bureau Website (www.visittucson.org), 'surrounded by the majestic saguaro forests and dramatic mountain peaks, Tucson blends the beauty of the natural world with the excitement and amenities of a thriving city.' You can visit the fabulous Arizona-Sonoran Desert Museum, go hiking in Sabino Canyon or explore Saguaro National Park. You can go shopping in numerous venues and enjoy delicious meals in world-class restaurants. Or, you can relax by one of the resort's pools or play a round of golf on one of their courses. There is something for everyone.

We hope to see you this spring in Arizona. Please contact AJA at aja@ncsc.dni.us or (757) 259-1841 if you have questions.
