Judge Nathan E. White, Jr. was installed as President General of the National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution (“SAR”) on July 11, 2006 at the National Society’s 116th Annual Congress in Dallas, Texas.

The National Society is a 27,000 member organization, with members in the United States, France and several foreign countries, who are descendants from those who supported the cause of the American Revolution. The SAR promotes patriotism and good citizenship through patriotic education and youth recognition programs.

President General White recently addressed the American Legion at their National Convention in Salt Lake City, Utah.

He is currently serving as a state district judge and has previously served as President of the North Central Texas Council of Governments, District Governor of Rotary International, Trustee of Sigma Chi Fraternity, and was previously named Plano, Texas Citizen of the Year.

He and his wife Wanda attended Plano public schools, and now live in McKinney Texas.

He has served for several years as Governor for District VII, and is a Trustee of the AJA Foundation.
