

Nominations Open for Devitt Award

The American Judicature Society (AJS) is accepting nominations for the 19th Annual Edward J. Devitt Distinguished Service Award. This award recognizes the dedicated public service of members of the federal judiciary and is open to all federal judges appointed under Article III of the Constitution.

The honor includes an award of $15,000 and an inscribed crystal obelisk. Nominations should be made in writing and should set forth the nominee's accomplishments and professional activities that have contributed to the cause of justice.

Nominations should be submitted by January 15, 2001, to Devitt Distinguished Service to Justice Award, 180 North Michigan Avenue, Suite 600, Chicago, IL 60601-7401. The award is administered by AJS with support from the Dwight D. Opperman Foundation, Minneapolis.
