

AJA Invites You to The Biggest Little City in the World™

Reno is pleased to be hosting the American Judges Association and its 41st Annual Educational Conference.

Reno is the center of commerce and culture in northern Nevada, with 184,000 residents who enjoy life in a high desert valley on the eastern slope of the Sierra. The University of Nevada-Reno has 12,500 students in ten schools and colleges contributing to the community's culture and diversity. The National Judicial College and National Council of Juvenile and Family Court Judges are also located on the UNR campus. Reno is a world-class tourist destination with a rich arts scene and year-round outdoor activities. We have something for everyone here.

This year's AJA conference will be at the Silver Legacy Hotel Casino and Resort. The Silver Legacy is a new facility in the center of downtown Reno and within short walking distance of other world-class destination hotels and casino resorts.

The sun shines in Reno over 300 days each year!

You will enjoy the beautiful fall weather of the Sierra Nevada. Rand McNally has named Reno/Lake Tahoe as the number-one destination in the United States for outdoor recreation with golfing, hiking, biking, tennis, fishing, and much more nearby.

- Virginia City, America's largest National Monument, provides an authentic taste of life in the Old West and a glimpse into the opulent and rowdy era of the Comstock Lode and is an easy drive from Reno, as is Nevada's capital, Carson City.
- Lake Tahoe, "The Gem of the Sierra," is a sight that should not be missed with its beautiful blue waters and towering mountains. Incline Village at Lake Tahoe is the home of the Ponderosa Ranch, the location of the Bonanza TV series and home of the legendary Cartwrights.
- Pyramid Lake is one of the largest desert lakes in the world and is the remnant of an inland sea, which once covered more than 8,000 square miles.

In downtown Reno, stretching along the Riverwalk, is Reno's arts and culture district. Here you will find the historic McKinley Park School, the Lear Theater, the Riverside Century 12-screen the-
